

Summer I 2015

Texas A&M University-Commerce

ACCT 525.81E

Advanced Managerial Accounting

A study of accounting as related to making decisions. Readings, cases, and problems dealing with managerial accounting issues, accounting concepts, budgeting and cost control, using accounting information in planning and control. Prerequisite: Consent of the instructor.

ACCT 527.81E

Auditing

This course is a study of the professional auditing standards followed by public accountants in performing the attest function for financial statements and supporting data. Prerequisites: Acct 322, 433.

ACCT 563.81E

Advanced Forensic Accounting

This course builds on topics covered in Forensic and Investigative Accounting. Topics include fraud auditing, litigation support, valuation, cybercrime, and other key forensic topics. The objectives include understanding the practices used by public accountants, internal auditors, prosecutors, special agents, investigators, and others used to examine and prosecute civil and criminal financial violations.

ACCT 589.81E

Accounting Internship

One to four semester hours. Individualized instruction/research at an advanced level in a specialized content area under the direction of a faculty member. May be repeated when the topic varies. Prerequisite: Consent of department head.

ART 458.801

Visual Communication Professional Practice

This course teaches general theory, concepts and techniques of Visual Communication professional practice. Students will learn how to navigate issues that arise in visual communication practice through research, discussion and self-promotion. Prerequisites: Art 365 and Art 472.

ARTS 518.801

Thesis

For students in the M.F.A. program: experimentation with a central, individually derived visual focus, culminating in an exhibition with accompanying written statement and slide documentation (five slides of works and the written statement to be submitted with the creative thesis). The M.F.A. Creative Thesis may be completed and presented only during a regular term of study. For students in the M.A. program: research on a selected art topic culminating in a written thesis.

ARTS 549.801

Studio 9

An introduction to the understanding, development and implementation of user-centered design thinking and problem solving. Emphasis will be placed on user personas, ethnography and other observational approaches, along with rapid prototyping methods towards building insights into product and service development.

ARTS 589.801

History of Graphic Design

Independent Study - Hours: One to four Individualized instruction/research at an advanced level in a specialized content area under the direction of a faculty member. Prerequisites Consent of department head. Note May be repeated when the topic varies.

HIED 697.8SE (video conference)

College Student Development

Overview of the most important student development theories and related research that gives insight into effectively working with students at various levels of growth. To help student understand the developmental challenges facing the American college student within the cognitive, intrapersonal, interpersonal domains, independently and in combination and develop approaches to facilitate student growth. Cross-listed with HIED 697.01R.

MGT 583.81E

Seminar in Leadership

This course provides an in-depth seminar emphasizing the development of organizational leadership as a discipline. It focuses primarily on the evolution of leadership thought and the application of the major models and theories associated with the various perspectives on leader behavior and subsequent follower outcomes

University of Texas at Arlington

HCAD 5310.050

Health Care Law

Coverage of statutory and case law of the health care industry. Topics include patient rights and malpractice, employment and compensation matters, insurance and claims, and government agencies that regulate aspects of health services delivery.

MARK 5330.050Services Marketing Management

Examines conceptual frameworks and management practices particularly relevant to organizations in service industries, including health care, education, financial services, retailing, non-profit organizations, and others in which the core product is a service instead of a good. The course examines many concepts and theories from the service marketing industry and analyzes their value in crafting marketing strategies. Emphasis is on problem solving unique to these types of organizations. Prerequisite: MARK 5311.

Summer II 2015Texas A&M University-Commerce*ACCT 527.81E*Auditing

This course is a study of the professional auditing standards followed by public accountants in performing the attest function for financial statements and supporting data. Prerequisites: Acct 322, 433.

ACCT 540.81EAdvanced Income Tax Accounting

A study of taxation of partnerships, corporations, estates, and trusts under current federal income tax law. An emphasis will be on solving practical problems using tax research tools and software. Prerequisite: Acct 440.

ACCT 563.81EAdvanced Forensic Accounting

This course builds on topics covered in Forensic and Investigative Accounting. Topics include fraud auditing, litigation support, valuation, cybercrime, and other key forensic topics. The objectives include understanding the practices used by public accountants, internal auditors, prosecutors, special agents, investigators, and others used to examine and prosecute civil and criminal financial violations.

ARTS 547.801Studio 8 Design Teaching Mentorship

Pedagogy in-classroom undergraduate training experience. This course focuses on in-classroom observation and experience through the shadowing of a faculty member, and the creation and application of classroom assignments for one semester. Pre-requisites : ARTS 540, ARTS 541, ARTS 542, ARTS 543, ARTS 544, ARTS 545, ARTS 546.

EDCI 514.81EManagement & Curriculum Development for Diverse Learners

This course contains introductory content for the professional body of knowledge necessary for effective teaching in a K-12 classroom. Competency in instructional design as well as organizing and managing a classroom in diverse environments will be developed. The content of this course will include classroom procedures and management, knowledge of research-based teaching strategies, curriculum analysis/development and lesson design, teaching models, formative and summative assessment, and certification issues. Students will exhibit an understanding of the domains and competences Texas teachers are expected to demonstrate on the Pedagogy and Professional Development TExES certification examination.

MGT 585.81EManagement Skills Development

This course provides an in-depth seminar emphasizing the development of the skills and knowledge required for successful managerial performance. It focuses on such areas as developing self-awareness, creative problem solving, supportive communication, the use of power and influence, motivation techniques and managing conflict.

SED 521.81EModels of Teaching in the Secondary School

Includes a study of the research, philosophy, and learning theory underlying current models of instruction. Practical alternative teaching strategies effective in accommodating students with diverse learning styles will be discussed as well as classroom management and the implications of whole-brain research and multiple intelligences for secondary/middle school teaching. Particular attention will be given to the teacher as an agent and manager of change.

University of North TexasADES 5521.091*Applied Research I

Students apply research methods and theory acquired in ADES 5520 and 5530 to individual and collaborative research projects and / or ongoing research for select DRC research initiatives. Student immersion in these research projects and / or streams will provide them with the opportunity to apply previously learned knowledge in concrete ways, and demonstrate and hone their skills as design researchers. Prerequisite(s) : Open to MA and MFA students in the Innovation Studies concentration who complete ADES 5520 and 5530 and / or consent of instructor.

University of Texas at ArlingtonECON 5333.050*Economics of Health

An economic perspective on a variety of timely health policy issues, including health expenditures, public and private insurance, incentives, provider education and labor markets, hospitals, prescription drugs, malpractice, externalities, long-term care, the Internet, and various proposals for reform. Prerequisite: ECON 5311 or equivalent.

INSY 5350.050

Health Care Information Systems

Addresses issues in the development, integration, and management of health care information systems. Specifically, topics in financial information systems, patient care systems, and health care delivery applications will be discussed. Both case studies and real life applications will be studied. Prerequisite: Cohort HCAD Major